PROFILE

Two apps and a website, all live, all built by me. I am currently completing the SheCodes bootcamp, where I am training in React, JavaScript, HTML and CSS, building real projects that pull live data from APIs and run in the browser today. What I'm not new to is hard work: ten years in speech therapy and global health taught me to solve problems step by step and explain hard things clearly. I learn fast and I take feedback well. Ready to contribute from day one.
